From:      David Dolinar
To:         Microsoft ATR
Date:      1/23/02 12:32pm
Subject:   Microsoft Settlement

The current settlement proposed is a VERY BAD IDEA. Microsoft should not be allowed to integrate anything with their OS unless ALL of their API's are forced open & other software companies can integrate their products to the same degree as MS's software. OEMs should also be able to package this other software integrated with Windows & the computers they distribute.

-- David Dolinar